scintillating $\text{♩} = \text{c. } 50$

Main musical score for piano. It consists of three systems of two staves each. The first system starts with a piano (pp) dynamic and a tempo marking of approximately 50 beats per minute. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and fingerings. There are also some markings like 'senza Ped.' and 'sim.'.

* a selection of plastic and metal screws and bolts inserted between the strings so as to modify the timbre, at the taste and discretion of the interpreter
