cry. They have come to take this land. Something we will never understand.

cry. They have come to take this land. Something we will never understand.

They have come to take this land. Something we will never understand.

They have come to take this land. Something we will never understand.

Some-thing we will ne-ver un-der stand.

It seems wrong. We don't own the land, we just be long. This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

Fighting for it seems so wrong. We don't own the land, we just be long. This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

Fighting for it seems so wrong. We don't own the land, we just be long. This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

This is what we've express.

Fighting for it seems so wrong. We don't own the land, we just be long. This is what we've express.
