

Yandarra is an aboriginal word which roughly translates as “place of storms”.

This work was written with images of desolate, windswept landscapes in mind, harsh yet in places containing great beauty and integrity.

The approximate duration of Yandarra is 5 minutes.

This piece was written with the financial assistance of the Australia Council, the Commonwealth Government's Arts Funding and advisory body.

Yandarra

for double bass and piano
by Matthew Hindson, 1998

This edition © Matthew Hindson 1998