When I dream

When I'm in bed asleep at night
With no one else around.
When nothing moves but beating hearts,
And nothing makes a sound.

I close my eyes and drift from here
To places far away
And dream of stars and fairytales
'Til nighttime turns to day.

When I dream I can sing
Among the birds on a song.
When I dream I can dance upon the wind.
When I dream I am every thing I ever hoped I be.
There is music, there is magic,
When I dream.

And some where in the darkness
There burns a tiny light,
That fills my heart with moon beams
And takes me through the night.

It carries me across the seas
To strange and distant lands,
And picks me up above the clouds
As only dream time can.

When I dream I can sing
Among the birds on a song.
When I dream I can dance upon the wind.
When I dream I am every thing I hoped I be.
There is music, there is magic
When I dream.

Would You Believe?

Would you believe me if you heard me say,
There's a whale in the bathroom that's been there all day?
There's a moose in the kitchen and a pig on the lounge,
And Harold the hedgehogs no where to be found.

There's a cow in the laundry with long pointed horns
And an elephant loose on the front of our lawn.
There's a possum in my P.J.'s and a lion on the roof
And the noisy old rooster is chasing the goose again.

Gold fish are swimming around in the sink.
There's a big hippopotamus having a drink.
A giraffes in my bedroom-
It's head out the door of coarse,
Wait just a minute
I'll show you my horse.

Yes, I know what you're thinking
You don't believe what I've said,
And stories like this one are all in my head!
Well, if that's what it means to be all grown up,
"An adult", "a ripe old age" and all that stuff!
I'd rather be little for a hundred years
So I can just make believe and no one would care...

There's a whale in the bathroom and a lion on the roof,
And the noisy old rooster is chasing the goose.
Goldfish are swimming around in the sink,
I'm having far to much fun and who cares what you think!
