Scene One

Vivacious  the White Rabbit hurries in, followed at a distance by Alice

White Rabbit:  Oh my ears and whiskers!

I'm going to be so late!
Alice looks around her; the White Rabbit has gone

Oh my good-ness! Where am I!

This certainly is not London, can it be Australia? No, I don't see any can-ga-roos! Then this must be New Zea-land!!

I knew who I was this morning, but now, without warning, I'm someone else, or something else, but I am not myself.
The Mock Turtle is sitting alone, sobbing over a pot of hot soup

Affectionately

Mock Turtle:

Beautiful Soup, so rich and green,

Waiting in a hot tu-reen!

Who for such dainties would not stoop?

Soup of the evening, beau-ti-ful soup!
And a great deal of other ones.

First you must get to the other side of the square we are standing in. Come on, I will show you the way.

In Winter, when the fields are white, I sing this song for your delight.

In spring—when woods are getting green, I'll try and tell you what I mean.

Pensively

Ped.
Summer when the days are long perhaps you'll understand my song: In Autumn, when the leaves are brown, take pen and ink and write it down. I sent a message to the fish: I told them 'This is what I wish.'
