

blacks, and so far as he could ascertain not a single white man had since offered death for killing blacks, though large numbers had been by whites. Some were poisoned through arsenic being mixed with their food. Possibly it was too late to save the blacks, but at least they could be the pillow of the dying race.

originals continues to be a... in our fair name, I have taken solemn oath," added Mr. Needham "be one people who have a conscience, and I shall work to have that out. I am going through the length and breadth of Australia to arouse a sense of shame amongst the people of Australia. There are about 2,000 blacks left in the Commonwealth and if they are to be saved they

Rev. J. S. Needham, Holy Trinity Anglican Church, said it was twenty whites were hanging in the gaol for the massacre, and so far as he knew not a single white man offered death for killing blacks, though large numbers had been by whites. Some were poisoned through arsenic being mixed with their food. Possibly it was too late to save the blacks, but at least they could be the pillow of the dying race.

"Australia's treatment of blacks continues to be a blot on our fair name. I have taken solemn oath," added Mr. Needham "be one people who have a conscience, and I shall work to have that out. I am going through the length and breadth of Australia to arouse a sense of shame amongst the people of Australia. There are about 2,000 blacks left in the Commonwealth and if they are to be saved they