

FALLING SNOW

Softly and gracefully falls the snow,
Draping the pines in a mantle of white,
Sifting and drifting, and caught in the glow
Of the silvery moon on a frosty night.

BY THE LILY POND

When lazy noon has opened all the lilies,
I wander by the pond with softest tread,
To see the goldfish flashing in the sunlight
And watch the rippling water-circles spread.
