Borrow scores without leaving your computer

Access nearly 8,000 scores instantly from your computer with our digital library loans.

Members of the Australian Music Centre can download digital PDF loans for perusal and study purposes, with three simple steps:

1. Create an online account
2. Login to your online account
3. Find repertoire and borrow digital loans

Scores that you borrow will include a watermark with your borrower details and the date of the loan period (three weeks), giving you time to trial and select repertoire. To protect the copyright of the artist, after three weeks, the digital file will expire and if you printed a copy you will need to destroy it. The legality of any remaining printed copies will be easily identifiable.

You can borrow up to 30 digital scores a month, in addition to your 10 physical items.

Requesting items for digital loan:

1. If you need to borrow something that isn't available for digital loan, you will be able to request it through the web page.
2. Click on the link in the message "This item is not yet in our digital library, however as a member you may place an online request and it will typically be available within 2 business days".
3. If the score can be included in the digital library, AMC staff will process it and inform you by email when it is available. Generally we are not able to include published or out of print works in the digital library for copyright reasons. If a score cannot be added to the digital library, AMC staff will send you an email to let you know.
